Final Project Proposal
Team Slytherin
Prof. Robert McKenney
December 11, 2017

Team Members:

Bridget Bradley

Harley Edgley

Meiling Dagg

Khoa Le

(Adam Testa?)

The Project:

The end product for this final project will be an informational website about the IMD program. The intended audience for this site will be prospective students and industry related professionals. This website will include a program overview, a class schedule for all sections in the current semester, a detailed page describing each course of the three we have chosen to cover along with their respective professors.

The chosen professors will also have a detailed page dedicated to them with their contact information and the courses they teach.

Tools:

❖ Atom
❖ GitHub
❖ Git Bash
❖ Bootstrap
❖ JQuery
❖ Sass
❖ Gulp

Communication Plan:

The team will use Facebook Messenger to communicate with each other and will use GitHub issues to keep track of each members' tasks.

The team will discuss a meeting time outside of class with the absent team members (TBD).
